

You Say Gender - We Say Queer

A day of discussion and play exploring gender diversity in the community

When: Saturday 28th June 2008, 10am - 5:30pm,

Where: 3 Julia St, Fortitude Valley (at Open Doors Youth Service)

Cost: Free Event with lunch and nibbles provided

RSVP: jthwaites@qahc.org.au or 3017 1793

You Say Gender - We Say Queer presents a day full of workshops and activities exploring, challenging and celebrating gender diversity in our community. Join the workshops or just hang out enjoy the day!

All welcome - trans - genderqueer - lesbian - gay - bisexual - questioning - friends

For more information go to www.qahc.org.au/freedom or contact Ms Hilary Knack 3017 1793 or hknack@qahc.org.au.

Presented by the Queensland Association for Healthy Communities Inc (QAHc) with thanks to Open Doors and the support of the LGBT community.

Event Outline

10am Morning tea on arrival

10:30 - 12pm Panel Discussion: Where does genderqueer fit into trans & queer communities today?

Lunch

12:30 - 2pm Developing inclusive policy frameworks: Trans & genderqueer identities in gender specific services

Afternoon Tea

2:30 - 3:30pm What happens past the door policy? Creating trans inclusive events/venues

3:30 - 4:30pm Gender binaries: What - where - how - exploring our own genders

4:30 - 5:30pm Zine-making made easy: Looking at Queer zines from all over the world and creating our own!